

VANDALISM BY STUDENTS

A student who in any way willfully defaces or otherwise damages any portion of a school property; or writes profane or indecent language; or makes any obscene picture or characters on school premises shall be liable to suspension, expulsion, or other punishment as set forth in the appropriate school handbook. A student who defaces loses or destroys any book, apparatus, or other property belonging to the schools shall be required to replace the same or make good the cost of such replacement. Failure to meet the financial obligation will be subject to action by the Superintendent and/or his/her designee.
