

BUS CONDUCT MANAGEMENT

1. Bus drivers shall have complete charge of school buses. Students are expected to cooperate with them in every way for their own safety, as well as the safety of others. Students are expected to obey the rules of conduct.
2. In cases of infractions of the rules of behavior, the bus driver is to report the incident in writing to the Building Administration and to the bus company management. Disciplinary action will be as outlined in the student handbook.
3. All rules are subject to revision as conditions warrant. Students are expected to give maximum cooperation on the buses to maintain bus-riding privileges. Failure to do so may lead to denial of transportation privileges to those students who violate the rules and regulations relating to proper bus conduct.
