

CURRICULUM SUPPORT AND RESOURCES

Continuous work and adequate resources are required to maintain an up-to-date and effective curriculum in a constantly changing world.

The Mansfield School Committee shall encourage and support the professional staff in its efforts to investigate new curricular ideas, develop improved programs, and evaluate results.

The Superintendent shall spearhead curriculum development for the school system, supervising the preparation of all courses of study. Working with him shall be the Assistant Superintendent for Curriculum and Personnel and the various administrative and professional staffs.

The School Committee authorizes and encourages the formation of curriculum committees of the staff for the study of curriculum improvements, including the selection of new instructional materials. Approved curriculum studies during the summer months shall also be implemented, with input from members of the community invited.

SOURCE: Mansfield

CROSS REFS.: IA